

A Picture Is Worth
A Thousand Words

The PATH Group ... a Job Search Support Ministry will be discussing ...

'Utilizing Visual Aids in the Interview'

On June 11th at the Compass Church in Naperville, IL.

About our Speaker:

Jim Fergle

Jim Fergle is the Manager of Job Search and Veterans Services at workNet DuPage in Lisle, IL. He has over 20 years of experience in the employment field.

A former U.S. Army officer, Jim has worked at the Illinois Department of Employment & Security; as a personnel recruiter; and, has held the positions of veteran's counselor, career assessment counselor, and employment trainer. Jim has trained over 7,000 people in career exploration and job search techniques during his tenure.

Mr. Fergle has been a featured speaker at the National Career Development Association and University of Wisconsin-Madison Career Conferences as well as numerous local Job Clubs and county events.

Program Overview:

Interviews are presentations. All presentations are performances. Your purpose in an interview is to educate, inspire and engage with the interviewer.

In today's job market, Presentation interviews are becoming more prevalent, if not a requirement. Learn how to use visual aids through a PowerPoint presentation or sketching a process that makes you memorable to employers.

The Interview is Storytelling; Stories connect people; Pictures engage.

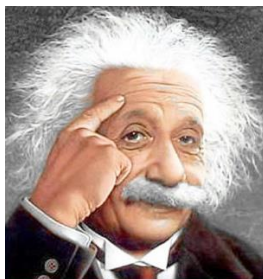

If a Picture is worth a Thousand Words are you effectively utilizing visuals to communicate Your Story?

Join us for this informative & enlightening program.
